

You're invited to donate a book for The Human Safety Net Home's library. It will be personal and permanent object displayed inside Procuratie Vecchie in Venice, Italy.

Which book can you give?

We would accept new or used books in a perfect, undamaged condition. We are looking for non-fictional books in any language on the topics listed below.

- Change makers
- Civic solidarity & movements
- Early childhood development & parenting
- History of civilisations
- Human potential
- Migration
- Social change
- Social entrepreneurship
- Social innovation

How many books can you send?

We will accept only one book per person. Please select the book that inspired you.

What is the maximum size of the book you can send?

We are looking for books that do not exceed size of ten inches wide and thirteen inches tall (10"x 13").

Where can you add your personal message?

Please write a short message in the book's first page with your signature and your country.

How can you send it?

Please bring by March 31st your book or mail it to any of the three offices listed below:

- California office: To the attention of Deven McCray
  4181 Ruffin Rd, Suite 150, San Diego, CA 92123
- Florida office: To the attention of Shannon Hill
  880 SW 145 Ave, Suite 400, Pembroke Pines, FL 33027
- DC office: To the attention of Vladimir Poletaev
  1250 24th Street, N.W. Washington, DC 20037
- New York office: To the attention of Bernadita Alonso
  7 World Trade Center, 250 Greenwich Street, 33rd Floor, New York, NY 10007

We will collect all books and will then send them to The Human Safety Net Home in Venice, Italy.

GENERALI | The Human Safety Net